GOVERNMENT OF BOMBAY,
FINANCE DEPARTMENT,
CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM No. 2049/33,
Bombay Castle, 6th October 1949.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM.

Proposals permitting Government officers to attend meetings or conferences are often referred to Finance Department for concurrence. In many such cases reference to Finance Department is not necessary. Rules pertaining to the grant of travelling allowance for journeys to attend conferences and meetings are Bombay Civil Services Rules 564 and 565. The power under Bombay Civil Services Rule 564 to permit Government servants at their option to attend conferences has been delegated to all Heads of Departments, subject in the case of certain Departments, to the condition that the annual cost on account of travelling allowance should not exceed the maximum laid down for the perupose. (Vide, delegation under Bombay Civil Services Rule 564, Serial No. 19 in Appendex I of the Bombay Civil Services Rules Manual Volume II). Travelling allowance at a rate higher than that prescribe in Bombay Civil Services Rule 564 is allowed under Note 2 to that Rule where attendance in obligatory. All Departments of the Secretariat except the Seaprate Department are, therefore, informaed that cases where officers are to be permitted or to be required to attand conferences as also cases falling under Bombay Civil Services Rule 565 need not be referred to Finance Department for concurrence except for budgetary reasons e. g., when the prescribed maximum limit on annual expenditure on accoount of travelling allwoance is exceeded.
